

Creativity and motivation in the classroom with teacher language development

Course Outline

- Embark on a dynamic exploration with this course, aimed at rejuvenating language teaching practices and captivating learners' attention. From revitalising course materials to honing spoken English skills, participants will immerse themselves in a transformative learning experience designed to elevate teaching effectiveness.

The aim of this CLIL course is to

- Enhance language teaching strategies for English educators working with secondary school students and adult learners.
- Foster creativity and engagement in language learning through dynamic methodologies.
- Provide transferable techniques applicable to teaching various foreign languages.
- Cultivate language proficiency and confidence, ensuring effective communication in English and other languages.

Activities

- Creative and engaging warmers
- Teaching grammar, vocabulary, engagingly, pronunciation and creatively
- Creative and engaging ways of exploiting reading and listening texts
- Creative and engaging ways of developing speaking and writing skills
- Language games
- Storytelling
- Vocabulary enrichment: idiomatic and current English language words and expressions.

Outcomes

- Develop your ability to teach grammar, vocabulary and the four skills in creative, engaging and motivating ways
- Enrich and increased your store of words, expressions and phrases which form part of modern, current, everyday English
- Reactivate and strengthen your own English language speaking fluency and pronunciation skills
- Develop your linguistic and intercultural awareness

Participants requirements: pronunciation: min. upper Intermediate (B2)